NOV 16 Friday 8:00 AM

Hello Parents,

We want to show our teachers the gratitude that we have for all they do for our students day in and day out. We will host a teacher appreciation breakfast on Friday, May 10th @8:30 am. Please sign up below to bring a breakfast item and deliver items by 8:00 am. If you cannot bring an item, feel free to provide a...

Commenting on a Post:

1. Click “Comment” under the post. Type your comment or question and then simply select “Comment”. Comments are a great way to ask a follow-up question!

The screenshot shows a user interface for commenting on a post. At the top, there are four buttons: "Sign Up", "Appreciate", "Comment", and "Print". The "Comment" button is highlighted with a red box. Below these buttons is a notification icon and the text "No Notifications • Staff and Parents". A large text input field with the placeholder "Comment..." is centered. Below the input field, there is a lock icon and the text "Private • Only you and Principal Cobb can view • An email will be sent to Principal Cobb". At the bottom left, there is a "Comment" button, which is also highlighted with a red box.

- Comments are private. Only the person who wrote the post and administrators can see comments. They are not visible to other parents.
- Comments are translated, so the reader sees it in their preferred language.
