

4th Grade Summer Reading

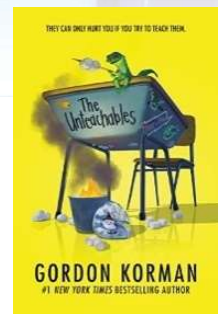

Summer 2022

Summer reading slumps, also referred to as summer slides, are avoidable. Reading quality literature over the summer for at least 30 minutes each day can prevent a summer slump for many young readers. According to research conducted by Jimmy Kim, “reading four to five books during the summer was potentially enough to prevent a decline in reading achievement from spring to fall”. Therefore, to support our incoming 4th graders, teachers have selected a variety of age-appropriate texts that are sure to capture the attention of readers.

Katherine Applegate’s One and Only Ivan series is our required text. It’s a fictional fantasy that explores some common fourth grade themes of change, community, and hope. In addition, we have several optional titles for readers to choose from: The Last Fifth Grade of Emerson Elementary, When Stars are Scattered, The Unteachables, Fish in a Tree, Ways to Make Sunshine, and Who was Harriet Tubman?
