All rising Honors 9th Literature/ Composition students:

Welcome to Lassiter; we look forward to working with you next year! You are required to read Animal Farm, by George Orwell.

Contact person: Wylie Brown – wylie.brown@cobbk12.org

Animal Farm:

Animal Farm is a literary classic, presenting the concepts of rhetoric, satire, and allegory. A story in the style of Aesop's fables, this novella depicts animals on an English farm to tell the history of Soviet communism. Orwell's Animal Farm remains on the "101 Great Books" recommended for college-bound readers by the College Board (associated with AP Exams, SAT, PSAT). Enjoy reading this classic and be prepared to write and respond in your Honors English class.

Assignment:

Read the book with attention to detail. Highlight things about character, theme, and setting that seem to be important. No written assignment will be due on the first day; after we return in August, we will be working with the novel in class. Please make sure you have read carefully, and you will be well prepared.
